Is your Aquarium hosting a fund-raiser? Does your music video scream for a unique angle? Could your swim class use a little motivation? Mountain Mermaid is the answer!

Heather Mermaid is a professional mermaid model who is available for your event, charity, group, or publicity needs. Ranging from television and print advertising to themed parties or corporate promotional events, in the water or out, Mountain Mermaid can give your efforts greater impact and a unique flavor.

Mountain Mermaid uses a professionally-made Hollywood-grade prosthetic tail for the most realistic mermaid appearance possible in the water or out*. More decorative fabric tails are available for out-of-water activity. Heather Mermaid's look often can be customized to meet the needs of your situation.

I am a certified Advanced SCUBA Diver and experienced underwater photographer based in Asheville, NC. Please E-mail or call with any questions or to schedule an appearance. Whatever your needs, you can bet Mountain Mermaid will leave you with a great "tail" to tell.
